Madewell Construction, Inc. is a general contracting company with unique perspective and experience in commercial and residential construction services. We have remodeled or built in the government, retail, multi-family, hospitality, restaurant and religious industries. Madewell Construction has sustained exponential growth every year since inception. Our team has a combined 50+ years of construction experience. We primarily focus of ground up, new construction projects in the small box retail and restaurant space and residential homes. Jordan Madewell has spent the last 15 years in administrative and financial services, building materials sales and general contracting and management. Jordan also has an expertise in real estate investments, equity, and finance that leads his company to growth every year.
